Mr. Henry DeYoung

At the close of this school year, Mr. Henry DeYoung leaves his position as Principal of Vancouver High School to become Executive Secretary of the Washington High School Athletic Association.

Mr. DeYoung has presided at the commencement exercises of sixteen of the sixty classes to graduate from V.H.S. He has served the school well through some of its most trying times: the war years with their shifts and overcrowded conditions, and the more recent combination of Ogden Meadows High School and Vancouver High School into one greater and larger school. When he first became principal, the school had 1062 students and 31 teachers. Now the total enrollment has grown to 1679 with a faculty numbering 72.

Throughout his sixteen years of work with the school and of active participation in civic affairs, Mr. DeYoung has earned the highest reputation for his dependability, industry, fairness, understanding, and unquestioned integrity.

In view of these facts, we dedicate this 1950 Alki to one who thoroughly deserves the honor—Principal Henry DeYoung.

Student Council

The 1949-50 Student Council has been composed of a cooperative group of students who governed the main activities of the student body. It included the following SB officers: Willis Anderson, President; Norman Webb, first Vice President; Bonnie Jones, second Vice President; Nancy Smith, Secretary, and Bob Hopkins, Sergeant-at-Arms. Members of the Council included: Jim Graham, Senior Class President; Ken Owens, Junior Class President; Dave O'Hara, Sophomore Class President; Jerry Miller, Boys' League President; Shirley Browning, Girls' League President; Jim George, Editor of the Log; and Molly O'Connor, Red Cross Representative. Attending members of the faculty were: Mr. DeYoung, Miss von Berg, Mr. Lothspeich, and Mr. Conover.

This past school term the Council worked eagerly and diligently in solving the confronting problems and promoting activities for the social as well as for the educational well being of the students. A courtesy week was sponsored by this group in which more and better school spirit was the objective. A committee for more inclusive pep assemblies was selected. Besides this, the student director and judges of the annual Vodvil were elected by the Council. They approved the re-organization of the Lettermens Club in the school and made Cross Country Track a major award sport.

As each year draws to a close, the Council is honored by a lively and fun-packed picnic.

Besides determining the school policies, the members of the Council, in cooperation with the Shumway Junior High School Council successfully directed the endeavors of the Trapedero Teen Age Club.

Girls' League

The first project of the Girls' League was the orientation program for new girls through the Big Sister movement and the annual costume mix. Monthly assemblies included the formal installation, the Orchesis dance group concert, two talent programs, and speakers on modeling and personality development.

On the social calendar were the Christmas potluck for cabinet members and their guests, the annual Tolo dance with the theme, "Old Fashioned Sweethearts", the sponsoring of two booths at the Trap Carnival, and the picnic for the Boys' League cabinet.

The Girls' League was represented at the fall Southwest Washington conference at Ridgefield, the spring conference at Aberdeen, and the Leaders' conference at Seattle.

The girls from both junior high schools were invited to an assembly and building tour this spring sponsored by the Big Sisters.

Boys' League

The Boys' League began a very successful year by sponsoring a "Get acquainted Dance" at the Trap.

Other projects throughout the year included Trapper Red and White Day, the sale of football ribbons, selling cokes at games, and working on the new swimming pool.

Leading the list of social events for the year were the annual White Christmas Ball and Dad's Night with Coach Kip Taylor of Oregon State College as guest speaker. Other social events were an aftergame dance at the Trap and a party for the Girls' League cabinet.

The monthly assemblies included interesting speakers in different vocational fields, sports movies, and talent shows.

The outstanding assembly of the year was presented by Alcoa. This program was for the purpose of explaining the high school Summer Work Plan of that company. Each year twelve boys from the senior class are selected for this work, and their jobs continue each summer through their college career. Mr. Ben Sloane of Alcoa, Mr. J. D. Miller of the high school and two boys who worked on the program last summer participated in the assembly.

Several things accomplished by this years Boys' League Cabinet to benefit all the boys of V.H.S. were the provision of mirrors and soap trays in the shower and locker rooms and the purchase of a set of vocational books which is available to the boys at all times.

The Boy's League Cabinet with the aid of the Vancouver Optimist Club established a $100.00 Boys' League-Optimist Scholarship to be given to an outstanding senior boy each year to attend the college of his choice.

Sing of Vancouver,
Hearts there are true;
Sing of Vancouver,
Dreams there I knew.
Sons of Vancouver
Can never forget;
Haze of our student days
Shines round us yet.

Golden our memories,
Counting them o'er;
March of the victors,
Laurels they wore,
Friendships high-hearted,
Shrined by the years;
Words that we spoke then
Ring yet in our ears.

Sing of Vancouver,
As we march along;
Years come and pass us,
Yet to you will belong
Our hearts and dreamings,
Glimpses of truth,
Vancouver High School,
Our home of happy youth.

"The Alki" of Vancouver High School is outstanding among the yearbooks of high schools in the Northwest because it is printed as a student project in the school's own print shop. Student linotypemen set up the body type from copy prepared by the Alki Staff. Student hand compositors set the Brush headlines, assembled the type and engravings into pages, and locked them up for the press. Student pressmen operated the Little Giant automatic job cylinder press on which these pages were printed. The "signatures" or sheets were folded on a Baum automatic folder which was also student operated. Finally, the Alki Staff and the Printers joined forces to gather the pages into book form to be sent to a commercial bindery for binding.

In addition to The Alki, the Printers have produced twelve issues of the Columbia Log, of Vancouver High School; five issues each of The Shumway Echo of Shumway Junior High School and of the McLoughlin Record of McLoughlin Junior High School. Besides these publications hundreds of tickets, programs, and school forms of varying sizes and degrees of difficulty were produced as student projects.

Highlights of 1949 Football

With their new coach Roy Sandberg, the Trappers opened the season at home by winning a 19 to 7 ball game from Salem, in a non-conference tilt. The squad then trekked to Yakima where they downed the Yakima Pirates in an easy scoring contest with the Trappers coming out on the long end of a 38 to 25 score.

In their first conference game the Longview Lumberjacks handed the Red and White an unexpected 6 to 0 loss. With a revengeful spirit the Traps stopped the Aberdeen Bobcats, 18 to 13 in a hard fought battle.

The next week Vancouver upset Highline of Seattle by a narrow margin of 13 to 12. Olympia, the '49 league champion invaded Kiggins Bowl only to gain a 21 to 21 tie from a spirited Red and White team.

The Trappers handed a shutout to the Centralia Tigers with a score of 13 to 0 and the next week were shutout themselves by the Hoquiam Grizzlies. Score-14 to 0.

In the Kelso game the Traps came from behind in the last quarter and looked as if they were on way to victory, but had to settle for a 13-13 tie,

In the traditional Thanksgiving Day game at Camas the Red and White played one of their best ball games and at the sound of the final gun, ended the season with a 20 to 7 win.

At the season's end Dick Moore was chosen for the All-State team to play in Seattle next fall.

The team elected Ken Cooper captain and Vern Emter inspiration man.

Pre-season Games

The Trappers started the season off with a bang by defeating Lincoln of Portland 67-42 and were still on top after they had downed Hillsboro by a score of 57-42. The Red and White then had trouble finding the hoop as they were beaten by Central Catholic 53-36 and by Kalama, the B tournament champs of 1949, by 64-49.

To gain experience the Trappers now went on a three day road trip to southern Oregon, where they lost hard fought games to Coquille, 44-42, and to Myrtle Point, 53-43, but they came out of their slump and defeated North Bend 53-45.

Conference Games

The Vancouver Trappers of 1950 started with Coach Les Long in his first year as head coach and settled at the finish for a co-championship with Kelso, winning nine and losing three games. Snow hampered the schedule, for two games, Battle Ground and Kelso, had to be postponed until the end of the season.

The Trappers began their Conference games by winning handily over Camas 64-40 and by defeating Longview, next on their list, 41-33. Because of the weather they shifted their schedule to play Longview the second game and to win by a good margin, 36-28. Repeating their success, the Red and White now gave Camas their second defeat to the tune of 65-54. Then the Vancouver team took its first Conference losses, when Kelso stacked up a score of 46-41 and Battle Ground made 49 to Vancouver's 45.

Starting on the third and last round of play, the Trappers threw off their jinx to win over Camas 54-36, to beat Longview in a close squeek of three points, 49-46, and to down the Highlanders 39-33.

After the Trappers had won their second brush with Battle Ground 44-28, they lost 31-47 the third time they played the Highlanders, but were able to end the season by defeating Battle Ground 45-39.

Tying with Kelso, the Trappers had to face a play-off for the State berth and to lose a heartbreaking game by a score of 38-36. Then with only one chance left to play in the State Tournament, they were slated to meet Hoquiam on the Centralia floor. Here though fighting their hardest, they lost by a score of 51-46.

Jerry Miller and Gay Dacus won positions on the All-Conference teams by their outstanding playing throughout the entire season

Autumn

School opened with the rush of enrollment in Mr. Jolin's classes.

"Assembly" (teen age program) was in full swing with Assistant Emcee Dick Nettleton, Jennie Rogers (Camas) and Bill Dixon (Washougal), vocalists, and Emcee Mark Johnson.

"Sittin' in the grandstand, beatin' on a tin can!"
Sally Jo Grimm and Allen Arnold, Dixie Geer and Doug Mitchell, Kay Bockstadter and Dave Kreibich.

Winter

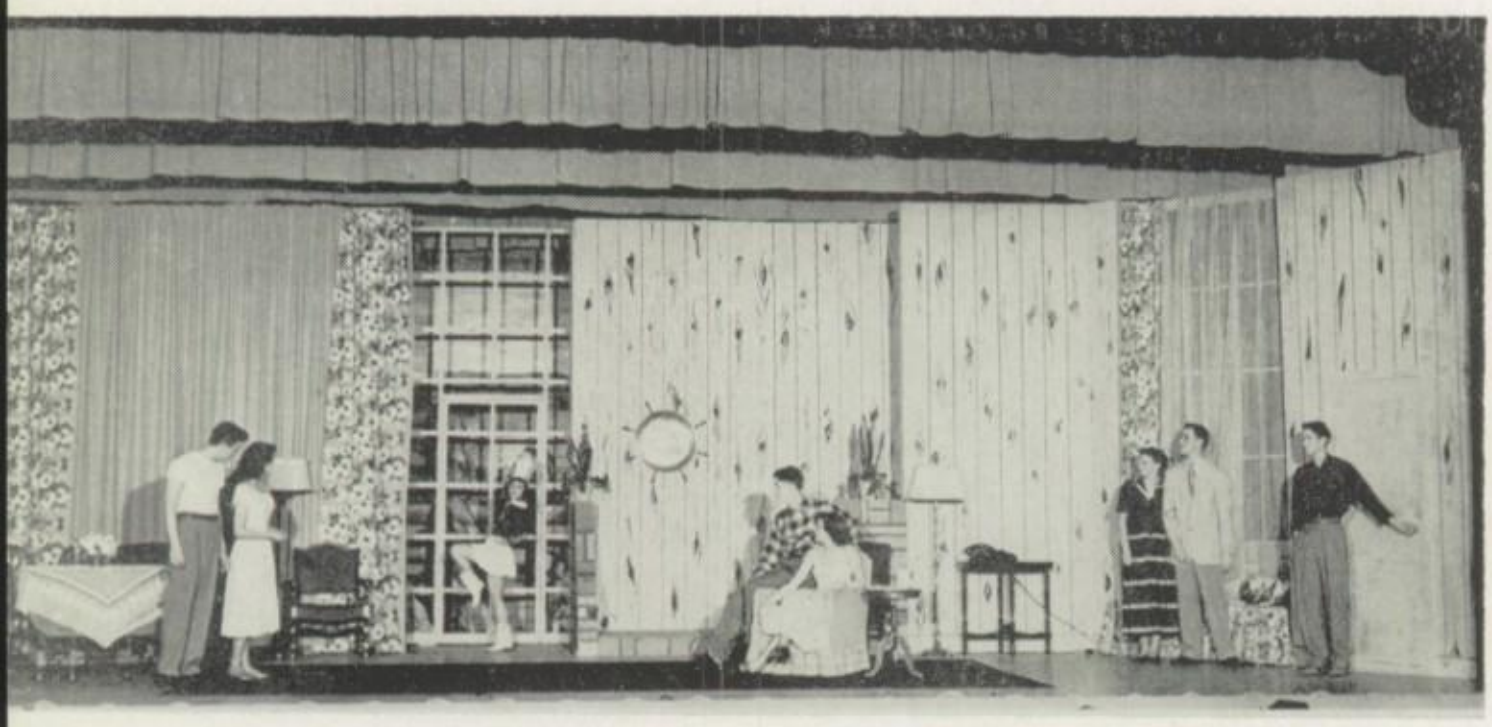
Mr. Long asked Santa Claus (Mr. Conover) for some great big V.H.S. basketball scores.

The Homecoming Dance was reigned over royally by Queen Kay Haugdahl, and princesses Glenda Cotton, Claudette Kment and Connie Stark, Bob Gibbons, chauffeur.

The Big Snow

Spring

The Senior play, "Seventeenth Summer", brought a wistful look into our eyes.



Gay Dacus looked like a very happy Tolo king.

Old Fashioneed Sweethearts was the theme of the Tolo dance.
